Welcome to Roanoke Rebos

Founded in 1986, Roanoke Rebos is a sanctuary for those in recovery, a welcoming place for connection, personal growth, and service to others. With numerous AA meetings held daily, we provide a safe, alcohol- and drug-free space to nurture recovery.

Whether you're new to recovery or have walked this road for a while, you'll find encouragement, fellowship, and purpose within these walls. You're not alone here—and you are always welcome.

Open meetings are listed on our schedule, and anyone may attend including family members, friends, students, and members of Al-Anon.

Our Mission

To support the personal recovery and spiritual growth of individuals and families affected by addiction—one day at a time.

Volunteer Opportunities & Fellowship

Looking for a meaningful way to give back? Rebos offers many opportunities to support others in sobriety and pay it forward. Whether you are interested in greeting newcomers, making coffee, helping with events, or joining one of our service committees, your time and talents are welcome. Fellowship gatherings for sobriety anniversaries, holidays, and special events provide additional ways to connect and celebrate together.

Ready to Join?

Membership is open to anyone in recovery with 30 days of continuous sobriety. Stop by, meet our members, and experience the Rebos difference. Come for the hope... stay for the healing.
